Grace

Unmerited favor. That's what our God is offering us. A free gift. He was willing to pay the price Himself for our sins because He knew we could not. We could never measure up to the holiness of our God. What a savior we serve.

We are born again into His grace. We can now strive to walk after the spirit and not after the flesh. It is usually a somewhat difficult journey, even as a newborn babe learns to walk. The whole time we are growing towards maturity, He is there to help us and cover our failings. If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to continually cover our sins. His mercy is without measure to the children of His love. "Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Phil. 3:13-14

Now that we are under grace and not under the law, we need to feed the spiritual man for him to grow. We need to feed upon the Word of God and be transformed by the renewing of our mind. His Word has that power. Feed and grow until you can say like the Psalms, "Whom have I in heaven but You? And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You."

Some would view it as an excuse to slide and get by with things but that is not the heart attitude of someone who loves God. We desire to please Him and to be like Him. We love the light more than the darkness. As the Word says "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any." 1 Cor. 6:12

The cry goes out to whosoever will. He is not willing that any should perish. His heart longs for all to turn to Him. This magnificent gift from a magnificent God is to all who would turn to him with a sincere heart and ask. Let your spirit be born into the realm of your heavenly Father.

From the song Amazing Grace.

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.
3. Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.
