

Body Parts

Dreams may draw attention to some body part on ourselves or someone else. The part may be exaggerated or shown as weak or injured. The “body” in the dream may represent not an individual even if it seems to, but a group, an assembly or the Church as a whole.

Ankles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Faith / weak ankles = weak faith, unsupported, undependable
Arm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> God’s power / help / mightiness, strength / savior / deliverer / helper / aid /reaching out [showing mercy] / striker Arm’s length – a distance deliberately maintained to forestall familiarity or domination Give (or cut off) his right arm – he’ll do anything to help; exceedingly generous In the arms of Morpheus – Asleep and most likely dreaming. Put the arm on – Arrest. Rub elbows – Associate with, usually referring to strangers in a public place. A shot in the arm – A boost; something that renews one’s energy or spirits. Up in arms – Ready to fight; rebelling. Welcome with open arms – Receive a person or an idea with great enthusiasm.
Back	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengthen or support / weak back – weak support
Beard	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Symbol of strength, honor, age. (KC) Covering Humanity Relating to the heart Rough, unshaven face – spiritual neglect or uncleanness; coarse or rough personality
Belly	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Symbol of emotions, love and hate, etc. (KC) Lying on stomach – humble (JPJ) Spirit Desire Lust Heart Feelings Selfishness Self-worship Sickness (IM) Symbol of the womb – place of conceiving idea or ministry
Body (as a whole)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Symbol of structure, framework (KC) Christ and the church Head – mind, intellect, Jesus Nakedness – vulnerable, without guile, nothing hidden Body parts immobile or paralyzed – demonic attack Dead body – dead in the gifts (JPJ)

	Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vent one's spleen – Air one's anger or opinions. • Works his butt off – Labors long and hard. BODY ODOR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uncleaness • Bad attitude • Filthiness of the flesh • Rejected
Bone(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Spirit • Condition of the heart • Death • That which is eternal (IM) • Structure: i.e. teaching / leadership (DM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bone dry – very dry; lacking in alcoholic beverages. • Bone of contention – a topic of dispute. • Bag of bones – Thin or emaciated. • Chilled to the bone – made uncomfortably or extremely cold. • Feel it in my bones – To have a premonition or an intuition about something. • Have a bone to pick – Have a point to argue about, a complaint to settle. • Make no bones about it – Speak plainly; take direct action. • Work one's fingers to the bone – Work very hard, to the point of exhaustion.
Bosom	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of love, affection, emotions Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bosom buddy – An extremely close friend. This is an American alliterative modification of “bosom friend,” a concept old enough to have been in the Bible, where Saint John is portrayed as the bosom friend of Jesus. As used here bosom connotes the seat of one's thoughts or feelings.
Breast	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Love • Nourishment • Affection (KC) • At the breast can also be a place of immaturity (DM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make a clean breast of it – Confess; tell all.
Eyes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prophets (Isaiah 29:10) • Symbol of omniscience, knowledge, sight, insight, foresight. • Eyes-flame of fire = searching, penetrating insight • Seven eyes = omniscience, insight • Full of eyes = sight, perfection of insight (IM)

- Itching eyes – freemasonry (Kathie Walters)

Unger's

- A fountain
- Color (Numbers 11:7)
- The face or surface (Exodus 10:5, 15 Numbers 22:5, 1 , as in "the eye of the land")
- The forehead ("between the eyes")
- Glance
- According to judgment or opinion ("In the sight of" "in the eyes of")
- Regard with favor in negative sense ("set the eyes")
- Many of the passions such as envy, pride, pity, etc. are expressed by the eye
- Whatever is a great delight ("the desire of your eyes")
- To preserve with special care (to guard the "apple [pupil] of the eye")
- A communication by the hands ("as the eyes of the servants look to the hand of their master" is an expression that seems to indicate that masters, especially in the presence of strangers, communicate with their servants by certain motions of their hands.)

Webster's

- The power of judging, estimating, discriminating, etc. by eyesight; as, a good eye for distances
- Judgment; opinion; estimation; as, in the eyes of the law
- Anything resembling or suggesting an eye in shape, general appearance or function
- Anything of supreme brilliance, beauty, importance or power; as, the sun is the eye of the day
- All in one's eye: imaginary; not real
- An eye for an eye: punishment or retaliation similar or equivalent to the injury suffered
- Half an eye: a hasty or careless glance; imperfect observation
- In the eye of the wind: in nautical usage, in a direction opposite to that of the wind; close to the wind
- In the public eye: (a) much seen in public: (b) often brought to public attention; well-known
- To catch one's eye: to attract one's attention
- To feast one's eyes on: to look at with pleasure or admiration
- To give (a person) the eye: to look at (a person) especially with admiration or invitation
- To have an eye for: to have the ability to notice with discernment and appreciation
- To have an eye to: to watch out for; to attend to
- To keep an eye on: to watch carefully; to look after; to pay particular attention to.
- To keep one's eyes open: to be on the lookout; be watchful
- To make eyes at: to look at lovingly or flirtatiously
- To run one's eye over: to glance over; look at hurriedly
- To see eye to eye: to be in full agreement; hold precisely the same view
- To see with half an eye: to see or understand something easily because it is so evident
- To set or lay or clap the eyes on: to see; to have a sight of
- To shut one's eyes to: to be unwilling to see or think about
- With an eye to: paying attention to: considering
- Eyeful: attractive
- Eye opener: something that causes the eyes to open widely in astonishment or

	realization; a drink of liquor, especially one taken early in the morning Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evil eye – A look of ill will; a glance thought capable of working harm or laying a curse. • Eye for (to) the main chance – To look out for one’s own interest; to focus on the important objective. • Green-eyed monster – Jealousy. • In a pig’s eye – Never; highly unlikely. • In the twinkling of an eye – Very quickly. (I Corinthians 15:51-52) • Jaundiced eye – A prejudiced view. • Keep your eyes peeled – Be on the lookout or alert. • Look daggers at – Regard angrily; show one’s displeasure silently. • Looked down his nose – Was scornful or snobbish. • Mind’s eye – The imagination; one’s mental picture of something. • More here than meets the eye – This is more significant than it appears. • Here’s mud in your eye – To your good health and success (a drinking toast). • Pull the wool over his eyes – Deceive him. • Quick as a wink – Quite fast. • See eye to eye – Be of the same mind; agree. • A sight for sore eyes – A person or thing one is particularly pleased to see, usually because one is beleaguered in some way and is relieved by the sight. • 20/20 Hindsight – A clear view, once a problem has been dealt with, of what should or could have been done to handle it better. • In a twinkling of an eye – Quickly. (I Corinthians 15:51-52)
Face	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of character, countenance, image (KC) • To confront or deal with (as in facing one’s fears or facing off) (DM) • Light or dark countenance = angelic or demonic influence • Head – Mind, intellect • Forehead – peace of mind • Hair – wisdom • Long hair – wisdom growing • Short hair: cut off wisdom • Bald head: lacking wisdom • Nose – discernment • Neck – willingness • Stiff neck – unwillingness • Teeth: ability to comprehend or understand • Eye Teeth – vision, revelation • Incisors – ability to decide • Wisdom teeth – wisdom (JPJ) • Heart: sad; glad; mad; bad; etc. • The same as another person (when one looks into the mirror of another person’s heart, he sees his own heart’s reflection) • Before or against another person (as in “get out of my face!”) • The actual person’s face (IM)

	Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do an about face – Drastically change one’s attitude on a question; make a 180 degree turn on an issue. • At first blush – On first impression; at first sight. • Fly in the face of – To defy or challenge; to act against the odds. • Keep a stiff upper lip – Remain stoical; maintain one’s courage; do not show emotion in an adverse situation. • Let’s face it – Accept reality; address ourselves to the problem; accept the challenge. • Lick your chops – Anticipate something eagerly and with pleasure. • Poker face – An unreadable expression; a resolutely maintained expressionlessness. • Put a good face on it – Make the best of a bad situation. • Save face – Avoid embarrassment or disgrace; retrieve or preserve one’s reputation at a time of a challenge to it. • Tongue in cheek – Speaking facetiously or insincerely. • Two-faced – Deceitful; looking and dealing both ways.
Fat	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Energy • Inward parts • Warmth (KC) • Excess • Abundance (IM) • Faithful – Available – Teachable (HM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fat cat – A wealthy person, usually one whose influence arises from applications of his money or the hope by other people that he will direct some of it toward their use. • The fat is in the fire – Something has happened that will make the action pick up speed or intensity; the damage has been done.
Feet	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of walk, conduct. • Feet on earth and sea. Formal possession. • Feet as fine brass - judgment against sin (KC) • Heart • Walk • Way • Thoughts (meditation) • Offense • Stubborn (when unmovable) • Rebellion (when kicking) • Sin • Lamé feet – unbelief or error; doubt • Diseased feet – Offense (toward God or man) • Barefoot – Without preparation / Without understanding / Without protection / Without salvation • Novice (as in “tenderfoot”) • Easily offended (as in tender feet) (IM)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lame foot - Reliance on the unfaithful in times of trouble [Proverbs 25:19] (DM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have both feet on the ground – Be practical and realistic. • Follow the footsteps of – To emulate someone or accept his guidance. • Foot-in-mouth disease – A capacity for saying the wrong or inappropriate thing. • Footloose and fancy free – At liberty, particularly with respect to romantic entanglements. • Close on the heels of – In hot pursuit. • Show a clean pair of heels – move rapidly; make a fast getaway. • To get cold feet – To lose one’s nerve: to have doubts about taking on an activity. • Down at the heels – Looking shabby, probably for want of money. • Fall head over heels – To be won over or enter an activity so thoroughly as to be almost helpless. • Feet of clay – A vulnerability; a failing or weakness. • Follow in the footsteps of – To emulate someone or accept his guidance. • Get the lead out of your feet – Move; pep it up. • Kick up your heels – Show spirit; have a good time. • Lets no grass grow under his feet – Moves briskly; makes the most of the time or opportunity. • One foot in the grave – In a bad way; seriously ill, or aged and infirm; on the point of death. • Put your best foot forward – Make a good show; present your best case or performance. • Put your foot down – Take a firm stand; resist or forbid some plan or action. • Swept off his feet – Overwhelmed by the impact of something; highly impressed. • Take a load off your feet – Sit down (or lie down). • Toe the line – Meet a standard; be up to snuff. • Vote with your feet – Leave a place or a situation you don’t like; show disapproval by leaving. • Waited on hand and foot – Assiduously (and perhaps obsequiously) served.
Finger	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to relate or intertwine • Direction • Index finger – prophetic • Thumb – authority, apostolic • Fingernail – weapons (JPJ) • Feeling • Sensitivity • Discernment • Conviction • Works • Pointing finger – Accusation / Direction (as in “he went that way”) / Instruction (IM) Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Denotes the special and immediate agency of anyone. The Egyptian magicians said of the plagues, “This is the finger of God,” i.e., done by God Himself. The tablets of stone were said to have been “written by the finger of God” under His personal direction. The heavens are said to be the works of God’s fingers, i.e. His power. And Christ said,

	“If I cast out demons by the finger of God.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “The pointing of the finger” signifies a scornful pointing with the fingers at humbler men and especially at such as are godly. • “Four fingers” is the measure of thickness used by Jeremiah Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At his fingertips – Readily available. • All thumbs – Clumsy, awkward at physical tasks. • To fight tooth and nail – Fight fiercely, with all one’s resources; cling tenaciously. • My finger itches to – I’m keen to do something. • A finger in every pie – To be active in many things (sometimes said sarcastically of someone who is overactive, a busybody). • Keep your fingers crossed – to hope that something spoken, thought of or put in train will succeed. • Let slip through the fingers – Lose an opportunity or a chance to catch something. • Moving finger writes – Time is passing; the record of your life is accumulating; your destiny is taking shape. • Rule of thumb – A rough measure or guide. • Under the thumb – Subservient to or under the control of. • Work one’s fingers to the bone – Work very hard, to the point of exhaustion.
Forehead	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thought • Reason • Mind • Memory • Imagination (KC)
Hair	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Glory of man or beast • Hair white as wool – Wisdom / Ancient of Days (KC) • Wisdom • Long hair – growing wisdom • Short hair – cut off wisdom • Bald – lack of wisdom (JPJ) • Covering • Covenant • Humanity • The old (sinful) nature • Doctrine • Tradition • Long-haired man – Defiance / Rebellion • Woman with long hair – Glorified • Shaving – Putting away the filthiness or nature of the flesh • Haircut – Removing or breaking covenants or religious traditions • Hair growing back – Restoring the covenant (or tradition) (IM) • Hairy – a frightening or difficult situation (DM) Webster’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anything very small in space, margin, degree • Hair of the dog (that bit one) : a drink of alcoholic liquor taken to cure a hangover

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not to turn a hair: to remain unaffected by excitement, surprise, fear, etc. • To a hair: exactly; perfectly • To have (or get) by the short hairs: to have (or get) completely at one's mercy • To split hairs: to argue points of no importance; to quibble • Hair-raising: terrifying; horrifying • Hair shirt: a shirt made or lined with harsh hair, worn as a penance • Hair trigger: quick to spring to action Unger's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hair was a symbol of that which was of the least value in man's person • Of great number • A tiny distance • Gray hair – the symbol of honor or authority and is thus entitled to respect • To cover the beard (the face up to the nose) – • A sign or mourning • Of trouble and shame • Equivalent to covering the head Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Neither hide nor hair – Nothing; invisible. • Make your hair stand on end – Is a frightening or unnerving experience. • Split hairs – Argue extensively over trifles or fine distinctions; quibble. • Tear your hair – Express anger, grief or worry.
Hand	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strength • Power • Action • Possession (KC) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Direction • Hand outstretched – relationship • Fingers – ability to relate or intertwine / direction • Index finger – prophetic • Thumb – authority / apostolic • Fingernail - weapons (JPJ) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Works • Deeds (good or evil) • Labor • Service • Idolatry • Spiritual warfare • Raised hands – Worship / Surrender • Clinched fist – fighting or anger • Two people shaking hands – covenant, agreement • Hands trembling – weakness or fear • Hands outstretched, palms up – helplessness • Hands covering face – Grief / Guilt / Shame / Laughter • Other self-explanatory uses of hands include: waving good-bye, begging; prayer (clasped together); calling someone to come or to follow (IM)

Webster's

- Possession of: as, the papers are not in my hands
- Control; power; authority: as, he rules with an iron hand
- Care; charge; supervision; as, the child is in good hands
- Agency; influence; as, one can see his hand in the affair
- An active part; share; as, take a hand in this work
- A symbol of promise; (a) a clasp or handshake as a pledge of agreement, friendship; as, give me your hand on that
- A promise to marry; as, he asked for her hand
- Skill; ability; dexterity; as, this work shows a master's hand
- Manner of doing something; as, he plays with a light hand
- Handwriting
- Applause; as, they gave the singer a hand
- Assistance; aid; help as, lend me a hand
- A person regarded as having some special skill or characteristic; as, she is quite a hand at the piano
- First hand: from the original source
- At hand: near; close by; ready; prepared
- Second hand: not from the original source; indirectly; not new; previously used
- At the hand of: from; as, mercy at the hand of the victor
- By hand: by the use of the hand or hands, not by machinery
- From hand to hand: from one to another
- From hand to mouth: spending or consuming immediately what is obtained; with nothing saved for the future
- Hand in hand: in union; conjointly; united
- Hand over hand; hand over fist: easily and in large amounts
- Hands down: easily; without effort
- Hands off!: don't touch! Don't interfere!
- Hands up!: raise your hands over your head
- Hand to hand: in close union; close fight
- Heavy hand: severity or oppression
- In hand: in order or control; in possession; being worked on; in process
- On hand: near; available; ready; present
- Out of hand: out of control; immediately; over and done with
- To be hand and glove with: to be intimate and familiar with
- To bite the hand that feeds one: to turn against one's benefactor
- To change hands: to change owners
- To come to hand: to be accepted or received as a message
- To eat out of one's hand: to be completely dominated by or devoted to one
- To force one's hand: to force one to act, or declare his intentions, before he is ready
- To get or have the upper hand: to obtain or have an advantage over; to surpass
- To have one's hands full: to be extremely busy; to be doing as much as one can
- To hold hands: to hold each other's hand especially in affection
- To join hands: to become associates; to enter into partnership; to become husband and wife
- To keep one's hand in: to keep in practice in order to retain one's skill
- To lay hands on: to attack, injure, or punish physically; to get hold of; seize; take; to touch with the hands in blessing, ordaining, confirming, etc.
- To lend a hand: to give assistance
- To shake hands: to clasp each other's hand as a greeting, pledge, etc.
- To show one's hand: to disclose one's intentions

- To wash one's hands of: to disclaim all responsibility for; to withdraw from participation in
- Under the hand of: under the signature and seal of
- To hand down: bequeath
- To hand in: submit
- To hand it to: give deserved credit to
- To hand out: to distribute; deal out
- To hand over: to give up; to deliver; as, he handed over the office to his successor
- To hand round or around: to circulate; to spread; as, to hand round a bit of gossip

Unger's

The hand, in general, was the symbol of power and strength, especially the right hand.

- Holding by the right hand was expressive of support.
- Standing at the right hand indicated protection.
- To lean upon the hand of another was a mark of familiarity, as well as of superiority.
- To give the hand, as to a master, was a sign of submission.
- Pouring water on another's hands signified to serve him.
- To "seal the hand" is to prevent one from working.
- To withdraw the hand is to withhold support.
- To cut off the hand was an example of extreme self-denial.
- The open hand is figurative of liberality.
- The closed hand is figurative of a lack of liberality.
- The right hand was used to indicate the South, and the left the North.
- The right hand was the place of honor and power.
- "I will also turn My hand against you" signifies a movement of the hand, hitherto at rest, for the purpose of inflicting punishment upon the person named.

Dictionary of Clichés

- At his fingertips – Readily available.
- All thumbs – Clumsy, awkward at physical tasks.
- Give him the back of the hand – Show contempt or disdain.
- Back-handed compliment – A compliment phrased in such a way as to suggest that it is really a criticism or a deprecation.
- Eating out of my hand – Being very cooperative or submissive.
- To fight tooth and nail – Fight fiercely, with all one's resources; cling tenaciously.
- My finger itches to – I'm keen to do something.
- A finger in every pie – To be active in many things (sometimes said sarcastically of someone who is overactive, a busybody).
- Hat in hand – Be deferential, humble or cajoling in one's approach to another person.
- Hand in glove – On intimate terms; cooperating closely.
- Hand-to-mouth existence – An economically precarious way of life; living improvidently.
- Iron hand in a velvet glove – Disguised firmness; a gentle demeanor concealing a resolute personality.
- Knuckle down – to address seriously the business at hand.
- Knuckle under – To submit; to acknowledge defeat or another's mastery.
- Left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing – One is compartmentalized in one's actions; one is not fully aware of what one is doing.
- Let slip through the fingers – Lose an opportunity or a chance to catch something.
- Mailed fist – Hard, overpowering force.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rule with an iron hand – Be stern, strict and perhaps harsh. • Rule of thumb – A rough measure or guide. • Take pen in hand – Write. • Time on my hands – I’m bored; I haven’t enough to do. • Under the thumb – Subservient to or under the control of. • Waited on hand and foot – Assiduously (and perhaps obsequiously) served. • Wash one’s hands of – Rid oneself of a problem.
Head	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seers (Isaiah 29:10) • Thoughts • Mind • Intelligence • Rulership • Lordship (KC) • Mind / intellect • Forehead – peace of mind • Hair – wisdom • Long hair – growing wisdom • Short hair – cut off wisdom • Bald head – lacking wisdom • Nose – discernment • Neck – willingness or unwillingness (JPJ) • Authority • God • Christ • Government • Husband • Pastor • Employer • Power (IM) Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • God • Christ • Rulers • Chief men • The chief city of a kingdom • The covered head – symbol of defense and protection or of subjection • Made bald – heavy judgments • Head lifted up – joy and confidence, exaltation • Anointed – joy and prosperity • Shaking or wagging the head – a gesture of mockery at another’s fall • According to scripture the head is the noblest part of man. Because the human organism culminates in the head, Christ is called the “head of the church”; and for the same reason the head is the general metaphorical destination of him who is most exalted, the most excellent, the chief. He who blesses lays his hand upon the head of the person to be blessed, and he who consecrated on the head of the person to be consecrated. Precisely for the same reason tongues of fire are distributed on the heads of the apostles, as it was a heavenly laying on of hands.

Webster's

- The head as the seat of reason, memory and imagination; mind; intelligence; as, use your head
- Aptitude; ability; as, he has a head for mathematics
- The head as a symbol for the individual; person; as, dinner at five dollars a had
- A unit of counting; as, fifty head of cattle
- The side of a coin with such representation: also called heads
- The highest or uppermost part or thing; top
- The foremost part of a thing; front; as the head of a bed
- The projecting part of something; specifically the part designed for holding, pushing striking, etc. as, the head of a pin, the head of an arrow
- The source of a flowing body of water; beginning of a stream, river, etc.
- Pressure; as, a head of steam
- A dominant position; position of leadership or first importance; as, the head of the class
- A foremost person; leader, ruler, chief
- A crisis or culmination; as, things may soon come to a head
- A toilet (nautical slang)
- To turn or cause to go in a specified direction; as, I headed the car for home
- By a head: in horse racing, etc. by the length of the animal's head; by a very small margin
- By (or down by) the head: in nautical usage, with the bow deeper n the water than the stern
- Head and shoulders above: definitely superior to
- Head over heels: (a) tumbling heels over head; topsy-turvy, as in a somersault (b) deeply; completely (c) hurriedly; impetuously; recklessly
- Heads up!: look out! Be careful!
- Of the first head: designating a deer at the age when the antlers are first developed
- Out of (or off) one's head: (a) crazy; (b) delirious, raving
- Over one's head: (a) too difficult for one to understand (b) so that one cannot understand (c) in spite of one's prior claim; (d) without consulting one; to a higher authority
- To come to a head: (a) to be about to suppurate, as a boil; (b) to culminate
- To give one his head: to let one do as he likes; to give free rein to one
- To go to one's head: (a) to confuse, excite, or intoxicate one; (b) to make one vain or overconfident
- To hang (or hide) one's head: to lower one's head or conceal one's face in or as in shame
- To keep one's head: to keep one's poise, self-control, etc.; to refrain from becoming excited or flustered
- To keep one's head above water: (a) to remain afloat; to keep from sinking; (b) to keep oneself alive, out of debt, etc.
- To lay heads together: to consult or scheme together
- To lose one's head: to lose one's poise, self-control, etc.; to become excited or flustered
- To make head or tail of: to understand: usually in the negative
- To take it into one's head: to conceive the notion, plan, or intention
- To turn one's head: (a) to make one dizzy; (b) to make one vain or overconfident
- To head off: to get ahead of; intercept; thwart

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Head first: with the head foremost; hence, rashly; recklessly • Headless: lacking understanding or prudence; rash; stupid; foolish • Head stone: (a) the principal stone in a foundation; the chief or corner stone (b) the stone marker at the head of a grave • Headway: the forward motion of a ship; hence, any kind of progress or advancement • Head wind: a wind blowing in the direction directly opposite the course of a ship or aircraft Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fall head over heels – To be won over or enter an activity so thoroughly as to be almost helpless. • From head to heels – All the way; totally. • With a full head of steam – Doing something with power, vigor and momentum. • Head and shoulders above – Far exceeding • Head in the clouds – Abstracted; absent-minded. • Heads will roll – Changes are going to be made in this organization (because things have gone wrong or there is a new boss). • Heap coals of fire on his head – Return kindness for unkindness; good for evil. • Hit the nail on the head – To say or do something just right; to arrive at the right conclusion. • I need it like a hole in the head – That’s something so undesirable or ridiculous that I most definitely don’t want it. • Keep your head above water – Stay solvent (barely); avoid disaster. • He has rocks in his head - He is acting stupidly or bizarrely; what he is doing or purposing doesn’t make sense.
Heart	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Center of being • Life • Emotions • Motivations (KC) Webster’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The human heart regarded as the seat of emotions, personality, attributes, etc.; hence (a) the seat of the emotions: said of the moral side of human nature in contradistinction to the intellectual; as, he was all head and no heart; (b) the seat of the will or inclination; disposition; mental tendency; (c) inmost thoughts and feelings; consciousness or conscience; as, I know in my heart; (d) any of the various humane feelings: love, devotion, sympathy, etc.; (e) mood; feeling; as, I have a heavy heart; (f) energy, spirit, resolution or courage; as, I lost heart; to keep up one’s heart • The inner part of anything; the part nearest the middle or center; as, the heart of a country; the heart of a tree • The chief part; the vital or most essential part; the real meaning; the core • A person, usually one loved or admirable in some specified way; as, he is a valiant heart • Strength; power of producing; vigor; fertility; as, to keep the land in heart • Secret meaning; real intention • After one’s own heart: in accordance with one’s desires or ideas; as, a man after my own heart • At heart: in real character or disposition; at bottom; substantially; really; as, he is good at heart • By heart: (a) by memorizing; as, to learn by heart (b) from memory

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heart and hand: with enthusiasm; entirely; as, we are with you heart and hand • Heart and soul: with intense earnestness; wholly • Heart of oak: a brave or intrepid person • To break the heart of: to cause o be overcome with grief or disappointment • To have at heart: to have an earnest desire for • To have in the heart: to purpose; to have in design or intention • To have one's heart in one's mouth: to be greatly frightened or excited • To lose one's heart: to fall in love • To set one's heart at rest: to set aside doubts, fears, or worries; to be tranquil or easy in mind • To set one's heart on: to be very desirous of obtaining or keeping • To take to heart: (a) to consider seriously; (b) to be troubled or grieved by • To wear one's heart upon one's sleeve: to expose one's disposition, feelings, or intentions to everyone • With all one's heart: completely; intensely; earnestly; thoroughly; fully • Heartfelt: deeply felt; sincere; as, heartfelt joy or grief Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Change of heart – A reversal of one's opinion or attitude. • A cold heart – A person who is aloof and unfeeling. • It does my heart good – Pleases me; relieves a worry. • Eat your heart out – To grieve or worry excessively in a hopeless situation; also what one says to someone in such a situation when one is unsympathetic to him. • To find it in one's heart – To be disposed or willing to do something (often said with the implication that one is doing a great favor). • From the bottom of one's heart – With deep feeling. • Have your heart in your mouth – Be frightened or very anxious. • With heart and soul – Wholly; engaging all of one's interest or emotions. • A heart as big as all outdoors – Extremely generous or compassionate. • He has a heart of gold – He is kindly and generous man. • To one's heart's content – To the point of full satisfaction. • Heart-to-heart talk – A frank, intimate conversation. • A man after my own heart – Someone who sees things, or a particular issue, the way you do. • My heart bleeds for you – I'm really not very interested in your trouble. • Warm heart – Compassion; empathy. • Warms the cockles of your heart – Pleases you; makes you feel good. • Wear your heart on your sleeve – Show your emotions or feelings plainly.
Heel	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of power to crush (KC) Webster's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anything suggesting the human heel in location, shape, or function, as the end of a loaf of bread, the rind on cheese, the lower part of a gunstock, the lower end of a ship's mast, a small quantity of liquor left in a bottle, etc. • A contemptible or despicable person • To equip or supply (a person) with something, especially money: used chiefly in part participle; as, well heeled • At heel: close to one's heels' just behind • Down at the heel: with the heels of one's shoes in need of repair; hence, shabby; seedy; run-down

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heels over head: in somersault fashion; recklessly; as, down they came, heels over head • On (or upon) the heels of: close behind; immediately following • Out at the heels: having stockings or shoes with holes in the heels; hence, shabby; seedy; run-down • To cool one's heels: to wait or be kept waiting long and tediously • To heel: (a) close to one's heels; just behind (b) under discipline or control • To kick up one's heels: to be lively or merry; have fun • To lay by the heels: (a) to fetter; to shackle; to confine: (b) to overcome; to frustrate; to hinder • To show one's heels: to run away • To take to one's heels: to flee; to run away Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Achilles heel – The one weak spot in an otherwise strong character or position. In Greek mythology Thetis, the leader of the sea nymphs, wanted to make sure that her infant son Achilles would be invulnerable in battle as an adult. She held him by the heel and dipped him into the River Styx, whose water was believed to confer invulnerability, but his heel remained dry because her hand was cupped over it. Achilles died as a result of a wound from an arrow that struck him in that heel • Close on the heels of – In hot pursuit. • Show a clean pair of heels – move rapidly; make a fast getaway. • Down at the heels – Looking shabby, probably for want of money. • Fall head over heels – To be won over or enter an activity so thoroughly as to be almost helpless. • From head to heels – All the way; totally. • Kick up your heels – Show spirit; have a good time.
Hip	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stubbornness (JPJ) • Mind • Truth • Joint (as in a relationship “out of joint” i.e. offense between brethren) • Reproduction (IM) • Shoot from the hip – to react rashly and without thought • In tune with the latest trends (DM)
Jaws	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of strength, power. Jawbone. (KC) • Something predatory, without feeling (like a shark) (DM)
Kidney	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of desire, emotions (KC) • Emotions • Communion (JPJ)
Knee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reverence • Humility, bended knee. (KC) • Submission / Obey / Serve

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Worship • Stubborn / Unyielding (IM)
Legs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of man’s walk • man’s strength • animal strength (KC) • Thigh – faith • Knee – humility • Knee bent – prayer • Big butt – laziness or apathy (JPJ) • Support • Strength • Female legs – seduction • Shaving legs – Putting away the filthiness or nature of the flesh (IM) Webster’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One of the limbs of man or of an animal • The part of a garment covering the leg • One of the stages of a journey or other course • On one’s last legs: about to die, collapse, fall, etc. • To give a leg up: to help to mount or advance • To have legs: in nautical usage, to have momentum or speed • To make a leg: to bow • To pull one’s leg: to make fun of or fool a person by playing on his credulity • To shake a leg: to hurry; to dance • To stretch one’s legs: to walk, especially after sitting a long time • He has a hollow leg – There seems to be no end to the amount of liquor or food he can put away. Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get a leg up on – Make a good or promising start. • Kick in the Shins – An affront; a setback. • On his last legs – Near death or collapse or failure; at the end of his resources. • Doesn’t have a leg to stand on – He is in a weak position or is offering an indefensible argument. • Pull his leg – To fool or tease someone, usually in a friendly spirit. • Puts on his pants one leg at a time – He’s human, just like everyone else. • Went off with his tail between his legs – Departed in defeat, embarrassment or discouragement; retreated in a cowardly way.
Lips	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Testimony (KC) • Words • Seduction • Speech (IM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Between the cup and the lip – Any region where things may go wrong. The full expression is usually, “There’s many a slip between the cup and the lip.”

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Keep a stiff upper lip – Remain stoical; maintain one’s courage; do not show emotion in an adverse situation. • My lips are sealed – I can’t or won’t tell you; I am pledged (or have pledged myself) to secrecy.
Loins	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of strength in action (KC) • Loins are gird about in truth. (DM) • Mind • Truth • Joint (as in a relationship “out of joint” i.e. offense between brethren) • Reproduction (IM) Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The center of emotions such as pain or terror • Euphemism for reproductive power • When dressed with sackcloth – a mourning heart • “To gird up the loins” – symbolized vigorous effort
Lungs / Breathing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Active life. (KC) • Holy Spirit • Other spirits (DM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Breathes his last – Dies. • Last gasp – The end, or almost the end. • Wait with bated breath – Be expectant or apprehensive. • Waste of breath – Not worth saying; an unavailing plea or argument.
Mind	Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To have half a mind – To be leaning toward a decision or a course of action • Mind your P’s and Q’s – Take pains; be precise. • Mind’s eye – The imagination; one’s mental picture of something. • Gave him a piece of my mind – I gave him my straightforward, unvarnished opinion; I rebuked or scolded him.
Mouth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of testimony, good or evil. (KC) Webster’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A person or animal regarded as needing food (as in, another mouth to feed) • Anything resembling a mouth in position or use such as a well, a mine, a cave, etc. • The opening of a firearm at the end from which the charge issues • The part of a river, stream, etc. where the water empties into another body of water • A principal speaker, one who utters the common opinion • By mouth or by word of mouth: by speech as distinguished from writing • Down in the mouth: depressed; unhappy; discouraged • Born with a silver spoon in one’s mouth: to be born with advantage • To have a big mouth: to talk loudly, excessively, or impudently • To say a mouthful: a pertinent, important or correct remark

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mouth piece: a person, periodical, etc. serving as a spokesman for another or others; a lawyer who defends criminals Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Butter wouldn't melt in her mouth – Said of a cold, aloof person, or of one who looks innocent but probably is not. • By word of mouth – The spread of information informally, without organized advertising or publicity; speech as distinguished from writing. • Don't look a gift horse in the mouth – Take what's given to you without examining it too critically. • Down in the mouth – Glum; dispirited. • Foam at the mouth – Show anger. • From the horse's mouth – The truth; the straight dope; something from an authoritative or believable source. • Hand-to-mouth existence – An economically precarious way of life; living improvidently. • Have your heart in your mouth – Be frightened or very anxious. • Keep a stiff upper lip – Remain stoical; maintain one's courage; do not show emotion in an adverse situation. • Laugh out the other side of your mouth – To change from mirth to chagrin, exultation to anger, as a result of a reversal of one's fortunes. • Lick your chops – Anticipate something eagerly and with pleasure. • Make your mouth water – You anticipate something keenly or wish you could have it. • Out of the mouths of babes – Kids say the darndest things. (Psalm 8:2) • Put your money where your mouth is – Don't just brag or make assertions, show that what you say has some substance. • Run off at the mouth – Talk excessively, particularly in a situation where it would be better if one said little or nothing. • You took the words right out of my mouth – You finished my thought for me; we are thinking alike.
Neck	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strength • Beauty • Stubbornness • Humility • Hardness of spirit (KC) • Willingness (or unwillingness) (JPJ) • Self-willed / Stubborn • Unbelief • Authority / Rule (IM) Unger's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Risking one's life • The part of the building at which the roof rests upon the wall • Neck in yoke – man in relation to a true or false service • Stiff or hardened neck – rebellious spirit Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Albatross around the neck – a burden, particularly one that is difficult to get rid of.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Millstone around the neck – A burden; a heavy obligation. • This neck of the woods – Here; this region. • A pain in the neck – A severe bother or annoyance. • Stick your neck out – Take a risk; expose oneself to criticism. STIFF-NECKED <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stubbornness • Resistance to authority • Control (KC)
Nose	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Breath • Discernment. (KC) • • Busybody; nosy (as in “sticking your nose into other people’s business”) • Meddling • Strife • Smell (discern) • Nosebleed – strife; trouble (IM) Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hook in the nose – to control and humiliate • Putting a twig to the nose - to drive demons away during prayer • They apply the sickle to their nose – by seeking to injure me they injure themselves • To cut off the nose and ears – the mutilation of prisoners Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can’t see beyond the end of his nose – He is intellectually near-sighted, unable to think of anything but the immediate problem (and quite likely only a narrow aspect of that). • Cut off your nose to spite your face – Seek revenge for some pain or injury to oneself; a self-defeating action. • Follow your nose – Go straight ahead; continue on. • Lead by the nose – To dominate someone, order him about. • Looked down his nose – Was scornful or snobbish. • No skin off my nose – No concern of mine; it doesn’t affect me. • Have your nose out of joint – Be disgruntled, particularly when somebody seems to be taking your place. • Nose to the grindstone – Hard at work; held to a task. • Pay through the nose – Be charged an exorbitant price. • Plain as the nose on your face – As evident as anything can be.
Ribs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Breath • Conscience • Woman • Church (JPJ) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sticks to the ribs – It’s filling and nourishing food.
Shoulder(s)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strength

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Government • Support (KC) • Wisdom • Authority (JPJ) • Support / Bearer (as in “burden bearer”) • Government / Authority / Responsibility • Stubborn (refer Neck) • Broad Shoulders - Strength / Consolation • Drooped Shoulders – Tired / Overburdened / Discouraged / Hopelessness (IM) • “City of broad shoulders” - Chicago Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To turn a stubborn shoulder (“turn your back”) – • Refuse an appointed burden • Disobedience • Rebellion • To relieve one’s shoulder from his burden – deliver from bondage • Staff or yoke on the shoulders – bondage, slavery, servitude • Ensign of office is worn upon the shoulder • To lay heavy load on the shoulders – to selfishly burden men with obligations that the authorities do not concern themselves with. Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chip on the shoulder – To be edgy, snappish, ready to fight. • Head and shoulders above – Far exceeding • Put your shoulder to the wheel – Pitch in; apply yourself vigorously to some task. • Straight from the shoulder – Directly; without sham or deception.
Side	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Right side – faith to do / creative side • Left side – born with (JPJ) Webster’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On the side: as a secondary or part-time occupation; in addition to the primary issue • Side by side: together • To choose sides: to select parties for competition in exercises of any kind • To take sides: to embrace the opinions or attach oneself to the interest of a party when in opposition to another • Side issue: an issue or a trivial or subordinate character • Side arm: with a sweeping forward motion of the arm from the side of the body at or below shoulder level; arms or weapons that may be worn at the side or at the waist, as a sword or pistol • Side kick: a close friend; a companion; a partner; a confederate • Sideline: the space immediately outside the lines marking off a playing field; to hobble; a secondary line of business • Sidelong: indirect; subtle, as a remark or a glance • Sideshow: something of minor or secondary importance; a subordinate event • Sideman: an assistant to a church warden • Sidesplitting: hearty, convulsive laughter

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Side step; to step to one side, as to avoid something; to dodge • Side track: to shunt; to shift, to divert from the main course or issue • Side winder: a horned rattlesnake; a powerful swinging blow of the fist, delivered from the side Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Got up on the wrong side of the bed – It’s a bad day; things aren’t going right.
Skin	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of covering (KC) Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • “Skin for skin” – to endure pain to preserve the life • A close call – (as in “by the skin of the teeth”) • To change one’s skin – to get rid of (or the inability to) an evil character that has become second nature Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Skin and bones – Thin; emaciated. • By the skin of the teeth – Narrowly; just barely.
Stomach (refer belly)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lying on the stomach – humility (JPJ)
Teeth	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sharpness • Devouring power (KC) • Ability to understand / comprehend • Eye teeth – ability to see and understand / revelation • Wisdom teeth – understanding with wisdom • Incisor teeth – decision / ability to decide (JPJ) • Wisdom (especially wisdom teeth) • Experience • Work out (as in “work out your own salvation”) • Brushing teeth – Cleaning one’s thoughts / Meditation • Animal teeth (Lion’s Wolf’s, etc.) – Danger • Baby teeth – Immaturity / Without experience / Without wisdom or knowledge / Innocent • False Teeth / False or replacement / Wisdom or knowledge gained through experience or previous failures / Logical reasoning (e.g. philosophy replacing truth) / Tradition / Error • Toothache – Trial / Trouble • Broken tooth – Bad Experience / Problem / Gaining wisdom (learning obedience) through suffering (IM) • Chewing – meditating on something • Bad tooth - Reliance on the unfaithful in times of trouble [Prov 25:19] (DM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Armed to the teeth – Fully or even excessively equipped with weapons for a contest. • Clean as a hound’s tooth – Exceptionally clean. • To fight tooth and nail – Fight fiercely, with all one’s resources; cling tenaciously.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grit your teeth – Prepare for a strenuous effort or to endure a difficult time. • Long in the tooth – Old; aging. • Scarce as hen’s teeth – Nonexistent or extremely rare. • Sets your teeth on edge – Is severely annoying or unnerving. • By the skin of the teeth – Narrowly; just barely. • Take the bit in his teeth – Proceed resolutely; push aside restraints and forge ahead. • BITE / BITING <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Affliction (JPJ) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bite the bullet – Brace yourself for an unpleasant experience; decide to get on with a difficult task. • Bite the dust – to die in a fracas or to suffer severe setback. • Bite the hand that feeds you – Be ungrateful; turn against a benefactor.
Thigh	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strength (KC) • Faith (JPJ) • Flesh • The natural man • Works of the flesh • Lust • Seduction (IM) Unger’s <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hand under the thigh – take an oath • To uncover the leg – lay aside all feminine modesty • Striking the thigh – deepest shame or sorrow
Throat	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of swallowing, either good or evil (KC) • cut one's own throat - to bring about one's own ruin: He cut his own throat by being nasty to the boss. • jump down someone's throat - to disagree with, criticize, or scold overhastily • lump in one's throat - a tight or uncomfortable feeling in the throat, as a reaction to an emotion: The sight of the infant brought a lump to her throat. • ram / force (something) down someone's throat - to force someone to agree to or accept (something). • stick in one's throat - to be difficult of expression; cause to hesitate: The words of sympathy stuck in her throat. • have by the throat - to have complete control over (a person or thing) (dictionary.com)
Thumb	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Authority • Apostolic (JPJ)

	Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All thumbs – Clumsy, awkward at physical tasks. • Under the thumb – Subservient to or under the control of. • thumb one's nose - to put one's thumb to one's nose and extend the fingers as a crudely defiant or contemptuous gesture; to express defiance or contempt; dismiss or reject contemptuously. • thumbs down - a gesture or expression of dissent or disapproval • thumbs up - a gesture or expression of assent or approval. • Green thumb – talented in growing plants [or money] • Rule of thumb – a general or approximate principle, procedure, or rule based on experience or practice, as opposed to a specific, scientific calculation or estimate; a rough, practical method of procedure. • Stick out like a sore thumb – to be very obvious • Twiddle one's thumbs - to do nothing; be idle (dictionary.com)
Toe	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • on one's toes - energetic; alert; ready • step / tread on (someone's) toes - to offend (a person); encroach on the territory or sphere of responsibility of (another) • dip one's toe in, dip one's toes in - to begin doing or try something new or unfamiliar • turn up one's toes - to die • From head to toe – at all points (dictionary.com) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Toe the line – Meet a standard ; be up to snuff.
Tongue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Symbol of language, speech. • Used for good or evil, blessing or cursing. • Only God can tame the human tongue. (KC) • Prayer • Confession • Gossip / Slander • Search / Inquire (IM) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At the tip of my tongue – Something I know but can't quite recall. • Has the cat got your tongue? – Are you unable to speak? • Lick your chops – Anticipate something eagerly and with pleasure. • Tongue in cheek – Speaking facetiously or insincerely. • Licked – beaten
Wound	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Slander, gossip (Prov. 18:8) • Lick one's wounds - to attempt to heal one's injuries or soothe one's hurt feelings after a defeat. (dictionary.com) Dictionary of Clichés <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rub salt in the wound – Exacerbate an affront or a defeat; add insult to injury.
